SPORT SINGAPORE ATHLETE CODE OF CONDUCT

ATHLETE'S CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Definitions and Interpretation

- 1.1. In this Agreement, unless the context otherwise requires, the following terms shall have the meanings ascribed to them below:

“Athlete life development” means the Athlete’s education, career and personal development.

“Coach” means pathway development coach, youth team coach and any other coach who is engaged/appointed by the NSA in to train and develop the Athlete.

“High Performance Sport development plan” for athletes means a comprehensive strategy and operational plan designed to optimize the athletic performance and development of individual athletes or teams, to maximise their potential in pursuit of elite athletic achievement. It typically comprises the yearly planning instrument for the athlete (i.e. training and competition plans), athlete life planning, and sport science support etc..

“High Performance Sport personnel” refers to coaches, trainers and other professionals appointed by the NSA who provide support to the athletes to perform at the elite level.

“Safe Sport Unified Code” shall mean the code that defines the forms of abuse and harassment which may take place in the sporting environment, as set out at www.safesport.sg/safe-sport-programme/unified-code and as may be amended from time to time;

“Safe Sport Programme” is a framework for applying, implementing and enforcing the Safe Sport Unified Code.

“National Sports Association” or “NSA” refers to the sports association recognised by Sport Singapore and the International Federation as the local governing body for the sport.

“Prohibited Substances and Methods” means whether particular substances or methods are banned in particular sports, as the listed by the World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA) on WADA’s website at: <https://www.wada-ama.org/en/prohibited-list>. The list is updated by WADA annually and is the International Standard defining what is prohibited In-Competition and Out-of-Competition. WADA reviews and updates the List annually. The updated Prohibited List comes into effect on 1 January every year.

“World Anti-Doping Code” refers to the core document that harmonizes anti-doping policies, rules and regulations within sport organizations and among public authorities around the world. It works in conjunction with the International Standards that aim to foster consistency among anti-doping organizations in various areas.

“Testing Pools” means the groups of athletes who are subject to doping control testing.

“Therapeutic Use Exemption” or “TUE” allows an Athlete with a medical condition to use a Prohibited Substance or Prohibited Method, but only if the conditions set out in Article 4.4 of the World Anti-Doping Code and the International Standard for Therapeutic Use Exemptions are met. The authorisation for an athlete to take a medication that is used for genuine and legal therapeutic purposes, comes with prior approval granted by an independent TUE Committee as assigned by the ADS.
